Site Code
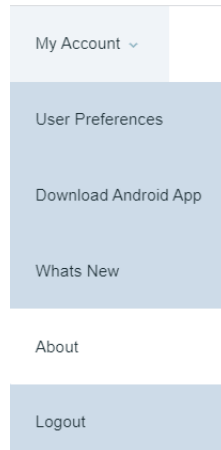

- If a User needs to access the mobile app but is unsure of the site code. They can access this through the Webapp, first they need to sign in and find the My Account heading, this will bring down a drop down menu in which the user will see "ABOUT"

- Clicking this will open a popup box with the site code in which the user will find the site code it needs to enter to gain access into the mobile app.